

Finanzgruppe

Sparkassenstiftung für internationale Kooperation

The Financial Sector in Yemen with Emphasis on Small Enterprise Finance

Part II: Small Enterprise Development Fund (SEFD)
and
International Bank of Yemen (IBY)

Dr. Ludger Buescher
Financial Sector Development Consultant
Gaborone

and

Marco Rimkus
Project Manager, Savings Bank Foundation for International Cooperation
Bonn

Sana'a December, 2006

Table of Content

	Page
Map of Yemen with Neighbouring Countries	iv
Note on Contents and Complementarities of Reports	v
List of Acronyms	vi
Executive Summary (German)	vii
Executive Summary (English)	xii
1. Mission Background and Acknowledgements	1
2. Recent Developments in Small Enterprise Finance	2
2.1 Overall Strategy Regarding Small Enterprise Finance	2
2.2 Proposed New Micro Finance Institution	2
3. Small Enterprise Development Fund	4
3.1 Historical Background	4
3.2 Legal Basis	4
3.3 Organisational Structure	3
3.4 Business Objectives and Out-reach	5
3.5 Services Provided and Target Groups	6
3.6 The Market for Small Enterprise Finance and SEDF's Marketing	7
3.7 Sources and Cost of On-lending Funds	8
3.8 Lending Procedures and Loan Monitoring	9
3.9 Portfolio Size and Quality	10
3.10 IT and Management Information System	11
3.11 Management and Staff	12
3.12 Support by Government and International Donors	13
3.13 Financial Status and Performance Indicators	13
4. International Bank of Yemen	15
4.1 Establishment and Shareholding	15
4.2 Organisational Structure and Out-reach	15
4.3 Services Offered	16
4.3.1 Deposit Taking	16
4.3.2 Lending	17
4.3.3 Other Services	19
4.4 Management	19
4.5 Financial Status and Performance Indicator	19
5. Summary and Recommendations	21
5.1 Small Enterprise Development Fund	21
5.1.1 Summary of Strengths and Weaknesses	21
5.1.2 Proposed Technical Assistance Package	21
5.2 International Bank of Yemen	26
5.2.1 Summary of Strengths and Weaknesses	26
5.2.2 Proposed Support Package on the Basis of a Commercial Contract	26