

Finanzgruppe

Sparkassenstiftung für internationale Kooperation

National Bank for Development Egypt

Dr. Ludger Buescher, Gaborone, Botswana

Marco Rimkus, Bonn, Germany

March 2005

Table of Contents

	Page
Map of Egypt with Locations of NBD Branches	ii
Table of Contents	iii
List of Acronyms	v
Executive Summary	vi
1. Background	1
2. Egypt's Economy and the SMME Sector	3
2.1 Recent Economic Developments and Outlook	3
2.2 Size and Relevance of the SMME Sector	4
2.3 Constraints to SMME Development	4
2.4 Economic Restructuring: Challenges and Opportunities for SMMEs	7
3. Salient Features of Egypt's Banking Sector	9
3.1 Dominance of Government Owned Banks	9
3.2 Performance of the Banking Sector	10
3.3 Problems Facing the Banking Sector	11
3.4 Efforts to Reform the Banking Sector	12
3.5 SMME Lending	13
4. The National Bank for Development	14
4.1 The Beginning	14
4.2 Ownership	14
4.3 Customer Base	14
4.4 Products and Services	15
4.4.1 Deposit Taking	15
4.4.2 Lending including Micro Lending	16
4.4.3 Provision of Risk Capital	21
4.4.4 Other Services	21
4.5 Organisation	22
4.5.1 Departmental Structure	22
4.5.2 Management Information System	24
4.5.3 IT System	24
4.5.4 Offices	25
4.6 Management and Staff	26
4.6.1 Background and Competence of Management	26
4.6.2 Staff Complement and Remuneration	27
4.6.3 Staff Training	29
4.7 Financial Status	30
4.7.1 Profitability	30
4.7.2 Assets and Liabilities	31
4.7.3 Liquidity	32
4.7.3 Capitalisation	32
5. Conclusion and Recommendations	33
5.1 Strength and Weaknesses of National Bank for Development	33
5.2 Support by International Donors	34
5.3 Proposal for Cooperation between Savings Bank Foundation for International Cooperation and National Bank for Development	34

Annexes